Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		▶ Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the online estimator, and privacy.

Step 2:
Multiple Jobs
or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld..... ▶

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2020 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $ _____
	Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 ..... ▶ $ _____
Add the amounts above and enter the total here . . . . .		3	$
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income . . . . .	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here . . . . .	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period .	4(c)	$

General Instructions

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2020 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2019 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2020. You had no federal income tax liability in 2019 if (1) your total tax on line 16 on your 2019 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 18a, 18b, and 18c), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2020 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2021.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as the additional Medicare tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. Step 3 of Form W-4 provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 . . . . . 1 $ _____

2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a . . . . . 2a $ _____

b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b . . . . . 2b $ _____

c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c . . . . . 2c $ _____

3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. . . . . 3 _____

4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld) . . . . . 4 $ _____

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income . . . . . 1 $ _____

2 Enter: }
• $18,650 if you're head of household
• $24,800 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)
• $12,400 if you're single or married filing separately } . . . . . 2 $ _____

3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-" . . . . . 3 $ _____

4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). See Pub. 505 for more information . . . . . 4 $ _____

5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4 . . . . . 5 $ _____

Franchisee Cash Accountability Policy and Procedures

Store # _____

Every employee will comply with our cash accountability policies and procedures. All employees will be held accountable for cash variations that occur on their shift.

- Each employee will be assigned to a specific register. It is mandatory that only the employee assigned to a specific register operate that register. Employees may not operate another register without completing a shift change.
- Each transaction must be fully completed before the next customer is served. This includes subtotaling, receiving payment, issuing the customer's change and receipt, placing the money in the drawer/safe, and closing the drawer. Each sale, regardless of size, must be treated separately and not grouped into a single register recording. Proper control of cash and inventory is critical to the success of you and this store.
- I understand that maintaining a safe level of cash is necessary for the safety and security of all store employees. Therefore, the following cash levels are to be maintained in this store:
  - $ _____ Maximum in bills during daylight hours
  - $ _____ Maximum in bills after dark
- Every employee will sign on the P.O.S. register using a code assigned only to you. If you leave your register at any time you will need to sign off the P.O.S register.
- When you are designated as the "banker" you will be accountable for your register and the safe. If you plan on leaving the sales area for any reason you must sign off the P.O.S. register and turn the safe off. At the time you return to the sales area you will need to log back on.
- When completing a shift change it is mandatory that you double verify funds in the register and safe with the incoming employee.
- After the completing of shift change, it is mandatory to calculate your cash variation. This will be verified the next day when the paperwork is completed. The goal on each shift should be zero cash variation. It will be considered a performance issue for any variation +/- $ _____, or any trend of variation in any amount.

I have read the cash accountability policies and procedures and I fully understand my responsibilities in providing accurate cash accountability. I further understand that if I do not comply with these policies and procedures then I will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including separation.

Employee Health Procedures

2005 Food Code - Person in Charge

What Every Employee Needs to Know

Our Goal: To give our Guests a positive, healthy and safe shopping experience while providing Store Team members a safe, healthy, work environment.

To meet this goal, the following procedures will be followed by ALL employees.

Requirements: If any employee SHOWS SYMPTOMS of vomiting, diarrhea, they cannot work in the store until they are without symptoms for 24 hours. This means the employee cannot work in any area of the store until symptom free. If symptoms persist the employee should seek medical attention.

If an employee is DIAGNOSED with Norovirus, Shigella, E-Coli infection, Salmonella, Hepatitis A, or has a sore throat with fever, or appears jaundiced (yellow color of the skin and whites of the eyes), the employee cannot work until released with a note from their health care provider. This means a Store Team member cannot be scheduled to work until a health care provider gives a written release for the employee to return to work.

If an employee is EXPOSED to Norovirus, Shigella, E-Coli infection, Salmonella, or Hepatitis A through a diagnosed household member, an outbreak, a household member attending or working in a setting with an outbreak, they must report to the store manager. The store manager will contact the local health department for further guidance.

What the employee should do:

- ▶ If the employee is showing the symptoms of being sick: Contact the Store Manager and let them know they will not be able to work until the symptoms are gone.
- ▶ If the employee is diagnosed to any of the above illnesses: Contact the Store Manager and let them know they will not be at work. Get a release from the doctor or health care provider before returning to work. Provide note to the Store Manager.

I have read and will follow the procedures above to help provide our guests and the store team a safe, healthy work environment. I understand if I am sick I cannot work.

Eliminating Harassment and Discrimination

I believe that all employees have a right to work in an environment free from any form of illegal discrimination.

What is the Store's Policy on Harassment and Discrimination?

I prohibit harassment of my employees, and discrimination against my employees, in any form. These prohibitions are strictly enforced, and such conduct may result in disciplinary action up to and including immediate dismissal.

We are striving to make our work environment free from harassment, discrimination and intimidation. If you have any questions about my policy, talk to me. I consider this subject important and serious. So should you.

What is Sexual Harassment?

Sexual harassment is unwanted and unwelcome sexual conduct – verbal or physical – that interferes with a person's work or job opportunities. It can include sexual advances, request for sexual favors or repeated and unwelcome sexual suggestions or comments.

Some examples of sexual harassment are:

- Making repeated, unwelcome comments of a sexual nature
- Touching or patting unnecessarily
- Using obscene gestures
- Telling offensive jokes
- Asking for sexual favors
- Distributing obscene pictures or cartoons (including e-mails)
- Making insults about a person's gender

Sexual harassment clearly takes place when a supervisor threatens to deny a promotion or otherwise punish an employee unless sexual favors are granted. But most of the time, sexual harassment is more subtle. How do you know if someone's actions can be considered harassment?

Gestures, actions and language are considered sexual harassment when they:

- Are unwelcome and repeated;
- Create an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment; or
- Interfere with an individual's work performance.

Although most reported sexual harassment cases involve men harassing women, it can occur in any situation where a man or woman mistreats another person because of the other person's sex. In addition, it can occur between people of any level of responsibility and of any age.

What is Discrimination?

Discrimination happens when someone's job is negatively affected because of their race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, sexual orientation, or disability. These categories are called "protected classes."

Here are some areas of the job where discrimination sometimes occurs:

- Refusal to hire
- Termination
- Compensation
- Discipline
- Scheduling

Discrimination, like sexual harassment, is sometimes easy to identify. It clearly takes place when someone is demoted, separated, or experiences some other significant negative job consequence because of their race, gender, or some other attribute that makes them a member of a protected class. However, just like harassment, most cases of discrimination are much more subtle.

Some actions which may be evidence of the presence of discrimination may include:

- Use of slurs or inappropriate language
- Telling of offensive jokes
- Making general statements about groups, or types of people

Any of these actions may be evidence of a person's intent to discriminate.

What do I do if I feel I am being harassed or discriminated against?

If you feel that you are able to do so, tell the person that you don't like what he or she is saying or doing. Ask him or her to stop the harassment and/or discrimination. Do not give in to sexual advances or discriminatory actions, even if you are threatened with losing a promotion, a shift, a project or your job. Remember that harassment and discrimination are against my policy, and against the law. If you do not feel comfortable asking the person to stop, let me know your concerns.

Write down when the incident(s) happened so you don't forget. Be prepared to tell exactly what happened, when it happened, and whether there were any witnesses to the incident.

Where should I go for help?

It is important that you report any incidents of sexual harassment or discrimination as soon as possible. Be assured that your complaint will be discreetly and promptly investigated.

What will happen if I complain?

I can answer questions, give you advice, and if harassment or discrimination is taking place, see that action is taken to stop it. If you wish to file a complaint, I will take down a detailed description of your claims. Then I will conduct a discreet investigation based on your complaint.

All information will be treated in a confidential manner. Your complaint will only be discussed with those who have a need to know. Be assured that management will thoroughly investigate your complaint and will take prompt and appropriate action.

How do I stop sexual harassers and people who discriminate?

Penalties for these behaviors range from reprimands to immediate discharge, depending on the severity of the case. Each situation will be looked at individually and decided on its own merits.

Could you be the harasser/discriminator?

My harassment and discrimination policies don't mean you must stop being friendly or sociable in the workplace. They simply mean you must be aware of your behavior and how it may be perceived by other people.

Sometimes people accused of harassment or discrimination are surprised at how their remarks or actions are viewed by others. Take a minute to ask yourself:

- Do you treat men and women equally? How about people from other races or cultures?
- How would you feel if you were the victim of unwanted sexual attention from someone who has control over your career?
- What if you felt someone was making decisions about your job because of your age or because of some disability you might have?
- Could the things you say and do interfere with others' ability to get their work done, even if they haven't told you to stop?
- Do you make sexual comments, stare at or touch people you work with?

With both sexual harassment and discrimination, the important issue is not how the harasser or discriminator perceives his/her words or actions, but how the recipient of those words or actions perceives them. It is the recipient's perception that will determine whether or not harassment or discrimination is present. The legal standard can be summed up like this: if a reasonable man/woman would consider conduct to be creating a hostile, offensive, or discriminatory work environment, then sexual harassment or discrimination may be present.

You should always consider how your actions are perceived by others. One measure often cited is to look at how you would feel if a member of your family were experiencing unwelcome sexual behaviors or unjustified discrimination at work. If your actions or words are perceived to offend, stop and rethink what you are doing. Ask me if you need help or guidance about appropriate conduct.

I have read the Franchisee Eliminating Harassment and Discrimination Policy and I fully understand my responsibilities. I further understand that if I do not comply with this policy then I will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including separation.

Drug Free Workplace How Do Drugs Affect The Workplace?

According to a Bureau of National Affairs study, substance abuse costs employers $100 billion a year due to such factors as:

- Performance errors
- On-the-job accidents and injuries
- Reduced effectiveness
- Absenteeism
- Tardiness
- Increased medical costs
- Turnover

The abuse of drugs, controlled substances, and alcohol (generally referred to as “substance abuse”) affects more than the abuser. Employers may be liable if employees injure themselves, co-workers, or others due to the influence of drugs, controlled substances, and alcohol. The vast majority of any work force consists of non-abusers who abide by the rules and who neither use nor condone the use of drugs or controlled substances. But when productivity decreases because of substance abuse, it is the co-workers who must pick up the slack. And when substance abusers need money to support their habits, co-workers are sometimes victims of theft. Innocent employees should not have to suffer for the illegal and costly acts of a few.

If You Have An Abuse Problem

Employees with substance abuse problems are not only increasing their chances of legal problems, but also are increasing their chances of:

- Being seriously injured in an accident;
- Needing medical attention;
- Causing harm or injury to those they care about;
- Losing money through increased absenteeism;
- Making poor work decisions, thus risking termination of employment.

Assistance is available to help you with substance abuse problems, you should contact me.

You may wonder what effect your reporting a substance abuse problem may have on your job. It is important to keep in mind that each situation will be treated individually and decided on its own merits. We actively support your efforts to achieve and maintain a life free from substance abuse. Coming forward to disclose a substance abuse problem may provide a chance to resolve the problem. By contrast, ignoring such a problem until it seriously affects your performance or results in violations of Store policies may result in disciplinary action, as discussed in our policy statement

If You Suspect Someone Else Has An Abuse Problem

It's not easy to confront someone about a suspected problem with substance abuse. It's also not easy to sit back and do nothing when you have a strong concern for others. If you notice a change in a co-worker's behavior that is detrimental to the person or to other employees, it could indicate a substance abuse problem. Of course, it could also be the result of something else. Regardless of the reason, a detrimental change in behavior is a clear sign that something is wrong. Therefore, you should act with sensitivity and care.

- Confidentially describe the change of behavior to me.
- Report only what you know for certain. Does the employee show a lack of coordination? Seem overly fatigued? Become easily irritated at co-workers?
- Do not accuse the employee of having a substance abuse problem. Remember, a change in behavior may be the result of factors totally unrelated to substance abuse.

Rest assured that I will make every effort to look into and assess the situation in a confidential manner.

I wish to provide you with a safe work environment. Our workplace must be free of the presence and adverse effects of drugs and controlled substances. I prohibit the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, purchase, possession, or use of drugs and controlled substances in all of its operations and facilities. You must be free from the influence of drugs and controlled substances at work, including any prescription drugs that may affect your ability to work in a safe manner.

Drug, Controlled Substance and Alcohol Policy Statement

In addition, because the effects of alcohol abuse can be as destructive as the abuse of drugs and controlled substances, I generally prohibit the use of alcohol in the workplace.

As a condition of employment, you must agree to abide by this policy statement.

If you are experiencing a dependency problem related to drugs, controlled substances, or alcohol, you are encouraged to seek help immediately by contacting me. Your request for help will be handled confidentially.

Violation of this policy statement will be handled in accordance with my disciplinary procedures, which may include termination of employment.

Questions regarding this policy should be directed to your Franchisee.

I have read the Franchisee Drug Free Workplace Policy and I fully understand my responsibilities. I further understand that if I do not comply with this policy then I will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including separation.
